

Advancing Wellness Grantmaking Leading for Power and Change

Strong and Resilient Non-profit Organizations

REVISED February 2021

What We Fund

- Organized efforts & initiatives designed to increase the recruitment, development and retention of non-profit leaders of color in the social justice movement.
- Organizations that partner with organizations led by and centered on communities of color to strengthen their organizational infrastructure and capacity to advance the movement for racial justice.
- Initiatives and/or organized efforts to evolve philanthropy's policies and practices that have historically excluded communities of color from sustainable philanthropic investments and leadership within philanthropic institutions.

What We Do Not Fund

- Core support to individual organizations working to strengthen their internal diversity, inclusion and equity practices.

For More Information

To learn more and apply for a grant, visit here.